The program is a follow on from last year's project "Wool From The Hills" and charts the rise of the woollen industry from earliest times to the rise and fall of the large textile factories based in the Borders (eg Pringles , Lyle and Scott etc.) Again is told with narrative, poetry, a few more character based items, and quite a bit of humour, together with an accompanying specially composed musical soundtrack.

A joint effort to raise funds for

The Crook Inn Community Hub and the Royal Highland Education Trust

Donations and raffle prizes most welcome
